

Junior League of Omaha Nomination Form

2008 Women to Watch Awards

Description: An award recognizing an Active member's support and dedication to the mission of the Junior League of Omaha: promoting volunteerism, developing the potential of women and improving the community.

Concept: Given to a maximum of three members in honor of the three founding members of the JLO. This award celebrates the trained volunteers of the JLO and their spirit of volunteerism.

Voting: Nominations from the General Membership will be accepted by the Nominating Committee. The winners will be selected by the Board of Directors at their April Board Meeting.

Criteria:

- ✓ Active member for three years
- ✓ Must have taken a leadership role in the League (Chairmanship, Vice-Chairmanship or Board position)
- ✓ Not a current member of the Board of Directors
- ✓ Participates in volunteer activities outside of the JLO
- ✓ Must be in good standing
- ✓ Displays characteristics and skills of a proven leader including organization, dedication, daring, strategy, vision, mentoring and patience

Clarification:

- ✓ This award is not based on point accumulation.
- ✓ A slate of eligible candidates is included on the reverse side for your information.*

Nominating Procedure:

- ✓ Fill out the Nomination information on the reverse of this form.
- ✓ Submit completed forms to the Nominating mailbox at HQ or simply email the necessary information to Erin Murnan, Nominating Chairman, at erin.murnan@bankofthewest.com
- ✓ Nominating deadline: March 25, 2008

*The list of eligible Candidates on the reverse side is complete to the best of our knowledge. Please, please, please let us know if you believe your name has been inadvertently omitted, and we'll be sure to add it! Thanks—the Nominating Committee.
